Was a COVID Vaccine Created Before Virus Spread? CCP Scientist Filed Patent Right After Virus Appeared: Report

By Jack Davis • June 4, 2021 at 4:39pm

the coronavirus outbreak, a new report says a scientist working with the Chinese Communist Party was trying to patent a vaccine for the virus before most of the world knew it even existed.

Emails from Dr. Anthony Fauci that have been unearthed have revealed that even as he publicly said the virus was almost certainly of natural origin, the head of the National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases had an inkling that the Wuhan Institute of Virology might have had a hand in the development of the virus, according to the New York Post.

Now comes a report from The Australian that a Chinese military scientist who had financial support from America's National Institutes of Health was seeking a patent for a vaccine in February 2020. The report, which is behind a paywall, was summarized by the Post.

Zhou Yusen filed his patent on Feb. 24, 2020, at which time the U.S. had reported only a handful of cases, according to the Australian. At the time, the world had only been told five weeks prior that human-to-human transmission was even possible, so tightly had China controlled news of the outbreak.

“This is something we have never seen achieved before, raising the question of whether this work may have started much earlier,” Nikolai Petrovsky of Flinders University said.

Zhou died in May 2020. The circumstances of his death are unclear.

Zhou reportedly worked with Shi Zhengli of the Center for Emerging Infectious Diseases at the Wuhan Institute of Virology. The Australian cited American intelligence speculation that “secret military activity” was taking place at the lab.

“Despite the WIV presenting itself as a civilian institution, the United States has determined that the WIV has collaborated on publications and secret projects with China’s military,” the U.S. intelligence said.

“The United States and other donors who funded or collaborated on civilian research at the WIV have a right and obligation to determine whether any of our research funding was diverted to secret Chinese military projects at the WIV,” the intelligence said.

The report in The Australian said that the Chinese researchers were examining genetically manipulating coronaviruses not long before the dawn of the pandemic.

The report further said NIH money was part of their funding at the time.

Fauci has called for a kinder, gentler tone toward China as a resurgence in the theory that the virus leaked from the lab has stoked the ire of many Republicans.

Thursday, according to Fox News.

“I mean, obviously you want openness and cooperation. One of the ways you can get it is don’t be accusatory. Try to get both a forensic, a scientific, and an investigational approach. I think the accusatory part about it is only going to get them to pull back even more.”

However, China is not the only nation whose bureaucrats have come under scrutiny. Fox News host Tucker Carlson has alleged it has become increasingly clear that China had help covering up the origins of the virus from American bureaucrats.

“Here’s the worst and most shocking part if you’re an American: Some within the U.S. government helped them cover it up. They knew all of this was going on. But they buried the truth too. Because their interests were aligned with the interest of the Chinese government,” he said in a recent monologue.

Of course this is all been covered up. This type of research was started years ago under the Bush administration after nine eleven happened. A lot of politician's sticky fingers are all over this and they didn't want the public to know that this type of "research" had been conducted. The Chinese govt probably thought they had a cure for this, but from some of the news during the pandemic that had leaked out, they didn't. Even now, their vaccine is not as effective as ours.

what if the vaccine that was made and patented was not for the people but just for the elite ,hoping the rest of the world would be slow developing their own ? a some what failed attack would be what happened ,remember what the democrats did when Trump shot down travel from china ,the opposition to a speeded up US vaccine ,then near the election ,the flip flop

Even worse, all mention of therapeutics was totally banned. Because you apparently cannot get "emergency authorization" for an untested vaccine, if there are existing therapeutics.

Explains the heavy mocking of the actually effective hydroxychloroquine to the point of Michigan banning its prescriptions and threatening to take away medical licenses for any doctor recommending it.

None of this passed the smell test - therapeutics should have been on the table from the very beginning - but they were officially censored in the media and by powers that be. Except for Trump, he kept pushing them and even used them when he contracted "covid".

Chinese companies have also gained access to U.S. healthcare data by partnering with hospitals, universities, and other research organizations in America. These U.S. entities routinely seek low-cost genomic sequencing services for their facilities, which Chinese biotech firms can often provide due to Chinese government subsidies. (In February 2020, BGI said it could sequence a human genome for just $100.8) These partnerships allow U.S. entities to expand their research capabilities, while Chinese firms gain access to more genetic data on more diverse sets of people, which they can use for new medical products and services. • A 2019 report found at least 15 Chinese companies that were either headquartered in China with a U.S. presence, or wholly located in China, were licensed to perform genetic testing or whole genomic sequencing on patients in the U.S. healthcare system, giving them direct access to the genetic data of patients in the U.S. Concerns over the exploitation of healthcare and genomic data by the PRC are not hypothetical. The PRC has a documented history of exploiting DNA for genetic surveillance and societal control of minority populations in Xinjiang, China. Fauci comes to mind you think.

Dr. Yan has revealed it all and put her life at risk to defect to America to tell the truth. So many surrounding Fauci were complicit in the dirty deed against humanity. May they all be rounded up soon and prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law!

But covid19 was used on the average working class Chinese people first. Who will ever know how many? A few brave Wuhan Lab virologists who witnessed the truth -- tried to warn us...they all died shortly afterwards.

It's the billionaires who are egoists, the NWO globalists, like bill gates, soros, who are committing wicked crimes against humanity -- not the average citizens who are used to test these wicked NWO experiments.

Please look up 'Georgia Guidestones' to understand what the left's plans are for billions of us. I believe whatever happens is God's will for us in this battle between good and evil, and that Satan loses and God wins. (Edited)

One of the unwritten rules when working on a bioweapon is you create an antidote or vaccine at the same time. All the "gases" were developed that way...so you can protect your own.

and guess who else knew all about it? better start checking out who else has been getting rich off this and start the arrests.

It's already been proven billgates owned the original patent4the covid19 vaccine way before 2020. Surely you knew that, so why not include that in your propaganda?

Billgates,fauci+soros money had the wuhan lab modify the flu virus to be potentiallydeadly if released (probably w/aerosols) and by already infected people arriving here + in other countries directly from Wuhan by planeloads, during first weeks of announcing "deadly pandemic disease" spreading through targeted areas like N.Italy, San Francisco, LA,New York. These globalist-eugenist-billionaires have been running experiments on how to killoff 7 billion of us+how to bury or incinerate evidence to cover their tracks. The deliberatekilling off was targeted to attack those with compromised immune systems; predominantly elders, diabetics - many who have high blood pressure + cholestoral as a result of obesity, smokers, those with heart/lung disease,people already in poor health are often at a much higher risk of not being able to fight off flu viruses. This helped them avoid suspicion.

But timing is what gives scheming globalists away. In this case,covid was released early in the2020 election year to stop MAGA rallies + start fear,panic+lockdowns. Also perfect excuse to use millions of mail-in ballots+dominion machines2change the election results2steal DJT's Big2020Win.

It worked.RINOs were in on it, too. (Edited)

Bill Gates, fauci, Obama were at the lab just before the virus was released. Bill Gates and fauci had patents for the vaccine before it hit America. There's your traitors and murderers. Charge them with treason. They killed millions of people in the world. If joe Biden sides with these traitors arrests his unamerican butt too. Enough of the democrats destroying everything they touch.
